

"Cuban Cafe"

We like to get up and go where people know, our names and favorite tastes.
'Cuz the more we feel like part of the deal,
the more we frequent to the place.
That's why we fell in love, like two turtle doves,
the first time we walked inside.
They romanced with salads and this lovely ballad,
now we're loyal for the rest of our lives.

It's time to eat at the: Cuban Café.
It's Where We Love to Play.
Come sing along at the: Cuban Café.
Here It's Sunny Everyday.
